

You dont want to talk to me?
I dont want to talk to you first

Angry words for separation

Angry words and emotions sometimes
help us to break through but keeping them for long will poison us...

Wishing you
a smooth move to the next stage

If I have to fight
for your attention,
then fuck
your attention

If standing up for yourself burns
bridges... then fuck
those bridges

I wish you
all the best,

I lost someone who
didn't care,
you lost someone
who did

But I was
you best
